Re: United States v. Daubriel Disla
19 Cr. 391 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

Together with David S. Greenfield, I represent Daubriel Disla pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act. Your Honor has previously postponed Mr. Disla's sentencing date in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. The most recent date set by the Court for his sentencing is September 8, 2021. As it turns out, September 8th is the Jewish holiday of Rosh Hashanah which both Mr. Greenfield and I observe. For this reason, we ask for an adjournment of Mr. Disla's sentencing. The Government has no objection to this request. The Court recently postponed co-defendant Irvin Castillo's sentencing to November 3, 2021. Should that date work for the Court, we are also available on that date.

Respectfully submitted,

Sarah M. Sacks

GRANTED. The sentencing for Defendant Disla is ADJOURNED to November 3, 2021, at 11:00 a.m.
Defendant's submission is due October 20, 2021. The Government's submission is due October 27, 2021.

SO ORDERED.
